

TWO'S COMPANY

Bill Phelan (BComm 72) is one of the many brave Irish entrepreneurs unwilling to let a mere downturn get in the way of a business idea. Together with Jennifer Haskins, Phelan launched a new matchmaking agency, Two's Company in January of this year.

Phelan, founder of The Phelan Partnership 28 years ago, is well known in the commercial real estate world, while Haskins is an executive coach with experience in psychotherapy and counselling. Phelan describes the new business as "a fresh thinking, totally private and confidential matchmaking agency".

"We provide a personalised service that caters to our member's requirements," he says. "Many of our clients are just too busy to spend the little free time they have trying to meet someone, and if the pub or club scene is just not your style then where do you go?"

"We provide a select, more exclusive non-mainstream alternative, which is not database driven, but a niche service, dedicated to professionals who value their personal details and privacy," says Phelan. And he tells us he's offering a special reduced fee for UCD alumni! See www.twoscompany.ie.

significant results for companies and participants," said Frank Ryan, chief executive of Enterprise Ireland.
