

Two's Company — a fresh new approach to confidential matchmaking

Launched in September 2009 by Jennifer Haskins and Bill Phelan, Twos Company (www.twoscompany.ie) is a fresh thinking, totally private and confidential matchmaking agency. Ms Haskins is an executive coach with experience in psychotherapy and counselling. Mr Phelan as the founder of The Phelan Partnership 30 years ago, is well known in the commercial real estate world.

"We provide a personalised service that caters to our member's personal and confidential search," Ms Haskins says.

"Men and women demand this because they feel they're being well taken care of. Matchmaking is a very difficult business because you're dealing with emotional currency and extreme expectations. The qualification process is very thorough, and we get to know our members' likes, dislikes, successes and heartbreaks. Successful relationships are based on a foundation of morals, values and common interests."

The typical man says "I don't need help meeting women. I just need a shortcut to the right women," ergo the matchmaker.

For men with money, prestige, or a wall of diplomas who want to keep their search for a mate under wraps, matchmaking offers the confidentiality they want with the hope of improving their chances of meeting the perfect partner. "Many of our clients are just too busy to spend the little free time they have trying to meet someone on their own" according to Mr Phelan. "They are goal-oriented and want to be as proactive as they can to achieve their goal of finding a happy relationship".

Two's Company provides a select, more exclusive non-mainstream alternative, which is not data-base driven, but a prestigious niche service, dedicated to the discerning, affluent or successful professional who requires an individual approach to finding potential partners pro-actively. As such, he/she will undoubtedly have high standards and enjoy the finer things in life. So finding a potential partner with a similar lifestyle and relationship goal, makes meeting the right people, at the right time extremely difficult, and even more so as we get older.
